Torah: In Word, Poetry, Music and Art: A Unique Neveh Shalom Project Whose Time Has Come - An Invitation to Join

Each week we explore the Parshat haShavua/ the weekly Torah portion through presentations at Shabbat services offered by rabbis at our main service or by lay leaders at our Downstairs Minyan. We delve into the Torah's meaning through weekly emails, by means of Mark Sherman's song of the week, Priscilla Kostiner's introductory words at daily Minyan Monday and Thursday, with the dramatic creativity of Storahelling or Divrei Torah at meetings. Each Bar/Bat Mitzvah offers his or her own interpretation of that week's Torah portion as part of his/her celebration.

We are now ready to expand the possibilities of Torah discovery to yet another level. Neveh Shalom member and religious school teacher Rosana Berdichevsky began with the kernel of an idea that she was bursting with excitement to share recently with Rabbi Greenstein and me. Why not use the internet to release the ingenuity of congregants to offer insights into the weekly portion in imaginative new ways inviting responses and reactions from fellow congregants?

As we considered the pros and cons of the many options available to us and caught some of Rosana's contagious enthusiasm, we determined that what would work best would be the creation of an opt-in Neveh Shalom list serve. At the beginning of each week one member of the list serve would assume the responsibility of uncovering a provocative verse, an idea, a single word, a detail, or a broad concept emanating from the Parasha and by means of a poem, photograph, illustration, musical presentation, short essay or whatever means available share his/her insight with the rest of the group. The insight might be historical or contemporary, archeological or political, social commentary or personal experience, P'shat or Drash.

these challenges and providing you with the best possible membership experience. Last year we heard loud and clear a desire to improve the communication between the Leadership and the General membership. Hopefully you have noticed an increase in communication via e-mail, newsletters and open committee and board meetings. There are a couple of key meetings I want to ensure you know about and participate in if you can. The Finance Committee will be holding a series of hearings during the first quarter to adjust the 2009-2010 budget and develop the 2010-2011 budget. This year is shaping up to look similar to last which ended with a deficit. I made a balanced budget a priority and we have made progress towards that end, but there are difficult decisions to be made. Ensure you understand how and why we make some of the tough calls by attending the Finance Committee meetings. These are tough times, but we are holding our own and want to ensure we continue to do so.

From the President

The Cantorial Transitional Committee and the Process Review Committees are both engaged in interesting and significant work. You may have participated in surveys from both of these committees. The PRC should have some far-reaching recommendations for the Board of Directors in the first quarter. It has been interesting to watch as this committee shapes our Congregation's approach to staff and clergy, with regard to personnel management. I believe it will be a major accomplishment, significantly improving the management of our congregation and viewed as a model by others in the Conservative movement. It is important to remember that it was born out of turmoil and dissatisfaction with our previous process and in the end may serve to weave a closer, more unified Congregation. The CTC is also working hard to answer some very difficult, basic questions, like "who are we?" They are making progress as they try to develop a consensus regarding the choices that exist about the various Cantorial alternatives. I will report more next time.

Doug Lenhoff

From the Pulpit

Then the other members of the list serve could think about the insight offered and comment, expanding on the stimulus of the original presentation. In this way we could gain from each other. Some members of the list serve might choose just to be observers, but our main goal would be to enlist as many active participants as we could interest—individuals who would assume the responsibility of stimulating the discussion on a particular Parashah and others interested in commenting.

Aren't there other congregations who are engaging their congregants similarly, we asked each other? None of us could think of any. So we may be breaking new ground in Torah and technology and we are anxious to give it a shot.

If participating in such a program excites you, please send an email to Rosana at rosberd@comcast.net. She will collect the names of our Founding Members. We will then get help from our IT people and create the list serve, which we anticipate will stimulate sufficient response that the membership will increase to include everyone who wants to share in this creative endeavor and learn Torah.

Membership Committee

Pancakes Pancakes If You Please!

On Sunday, February 7th the Membership Committee will be proudly hosting a Pancake Breakfast for the Members. Now, I love these events. It's a great time to eat pancakes, visit with friends, schmooze, catch up, and find out what people are or are not getting from their membership at CNS. The pancakes are yummy, too! The beauty of these events (Barbecue, Chanukah Party, Pancakes) are that they come at a really great price-free!

Now, how do we do this? Provide all this food for all of these Jews? Wow! Thanks to the Sylvia Pearlman Fund, that's how! The problem is, the amount has been dwindling in this fund. The good news is, we have developed a way to reload this fund, and to give one lucky family a FREE membership to CNS for 2010! SO if you purchase a Raffle ticket (of which only 150 will be sold) for $54 (or 2 for $90 as I did! Such a deal! Save Chai!) you are helping CNS continue to bring the membership great food and programs!

Well, let me know how many tickets you would like! And we hope you all had a great New Year!

Mitchell Elovitz,

Membership Committee Member

If there's anything our committee can do to help you feel more connected, please email me at elovitzclan@comcast.net

Notes from Shomrei Teva

A Tu b'Shvat Reflection: Tithe It All, Yes All

Friday evening, January 29, 2010, is Tu b'Shvat.

Following is an adaptation by Barak Gale of Deuteronomy 14:22-23, the basis for the Talmudic designation of Tu b'Shvat as the New Year of the Trees.

"You are to tithe, yes, tithe, all the produce of your seed-sowing, of what comes forth from the field, year after year ..."

Tithe all the fruit of your labors, income, energies, skills, knowledge.

Tithe for My orphaned species whose mother-forests have been chopped down, Douglas Fir, Redwood, ancient Red Cedar.

Tithe for My widowed sea bird who can no longer find her nest.

Tithe for My impoverished earth--poisoned, stripped, scarred, dishonored.

Tithe for My impoverished children suffering with asthma, forced to breathe foul air.

Tithe for the sake of My future tenants.

Tithe it all, yes all, to preserve the field from which it came.

Tithe by working your compost pile and watch My amazing worms squiggle in action.

Tithe it by surprising Me with yet greater mileage in your vehicles, that I may kvell in your ingenuity.

Tithe by bicycling or taking the train to work, and then notice My trees swaying in the wind.

Tithe it by bragging about the post consumer content of your paper, rather than its cranberry or pumpkin color.

Tithe by using less, by doing with less.

Tithe it all, "in order that you may learn to hold the Eternal, your God, in awe, all the days."

Chag Sameach

Kochavim & Notz'tzim

It's that time of year again, cold and rainy and dark, when we're all wishing for a little light and sun and warmth.

Our answer? Join us for the 2nd annual Dead Sea Spa Day, this year on SUNDAY, JANUARY 17!!

Here's how it works: You form a group with 6-10 other friends or let me help you find a group, you let me know who is in your group and reserve your 90 minute time slot for Sunday, January 17, starting any time between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. You send your checks to confirm your registration, and then - this is the best part - in the midst of cold, dark winter, you come and enjoy a very warm, relaxing, invigorating day of spa treatments: yoga, hand and foot massage, hot tub, and delicious middle-eastern refreshments. We had rave reviews last year from Spa Day and know you'll enjoy the day too!

Annual Giving Campaign

If Not Now, When? Today & Tomorrow
אם לא עכשיו, אימת? היום ומחר

The final installation in the "Jewish Giving" study series for this year's campaign... Thank you to ALL donors and participants in our education lectures who have helped us reach our 2009-2010 Annual Giving goal for this year!

For the past several months we've shared stories of ordinary people performing acts of tzedakah according to levels established by the great scholar Maimonides. Or, as we like to say, we've been climbing Rambam's (an acronym for Rabbi Moses Ben Maimon, Maimonides) rungs. We conclude our series with a game. See if you can rank the following acts of tzedakah.

- You give to the Jewish Federation. You don't know which agency will receive your dollars, and the agency itself does not know the names of individual donors.
- You organize a canned food drive for the Oregon Food Bank.
- You anonymously donate three new laptop computers to a school in a neighborhood in need.
- You donate your hair to an organization that makes wigs for children with cancer. You receive a thank you note from the little girl who will wear the wig with your hair.

While all of these acts are heroic examples of tzedakah, according to Rambam the order goes like this: E, A, C, D, B.

Mothers Circle

Mothers Circle Awarded Grants

The Mothers Circle Portland is a program for non-Jewish women raising Jewish children. Coordinated locally by Congregation Neveh Shalom, our Mothers Circle is in its second year. Last year sixteen women completed the course, and this year we have seventeen women enjoying the program, facilitated by congregant Lois Shenker. These numbers may seem small but these women are impacting not just themselves but their spouses, children and extended families. The program has been funded through generous grants from the Jewish Federation of Greater Portland's Innovation Impact Fund, the Oregon Jewish Community Foundation (OJCF) and the Oregon Jewish Community Youth Foundation. We are excited to announce the recent receipt of two new grants from OJCF from their Community Endowment Fund and Supporting Foundation. We thank supporters of JFGP and OJCF for their vision and support to enable us to keep this vital program available for our community. To learn more about Mothers Circle contact Coordinator Caron Blau Rothstein, crothstein@nevehshalom.org, 503-246-8831 x139 or log onto www.TheMothersCircle.org.

All Member Hanukkah Party!

Youth @ CNS

Greetings from Neveh Shalom Youth Services!

Now that we find ourselves in the middle of the school year, I have found myself reflecting on what has passed and where we are going as a community. The past few months have been so exciting for me as the youth director and an educator here at Neveh. I have had the great fortune of attending quite a few B'nei Mitzvot-B'nai Mitzvah recently (more than I think I did in my own Bar Mitzvah year)! Many of them have been for students that I have known since I first came to Neveh. It has been such a treat to witness their growth and maturity into young Jewish adults, prepared to take on the mitzvot and responsibilities of being a modern Jew in the world.

In many ways this class of 7th graders is one of the strongest youth communities I have witnessed as an educator. They all are close, attending each other's simchas, tragedies, life cycle events and (of course) spend every Wednesday night with each other at our teen school, and come to Kadima youth events. They are a true "chevre", a community of friends. I am so excited to witness them growing up as teens here, and continue the traditions and energy of our amazing current bunch of NSYers in the teen youth group.

We at Neveh take pride in partnering with families in helping to raise young Jewish adults to take leadership within the synagogue and the Jewish Community as a whole. After B'nai Mitzvah, the world opens up for us as Jews. Besides following and living the mitzvot, we also have new opportunities to engage with our fellow Jews in Synagogue life, and in the community. Our own youth programs have taken advantage of this aspect in the Jewish life cycle, opening up our teens to programming both at the synagogue and outside. Events like taking our Jr Kadimanicks to fun spots throughout the city, or holding events with our friends from other synagogues such as the joint Rock Band event with Beth Israel and the citywide Teen School events with fellow Jewish teens from across Portland. We also take special pride in our NSYers getting to know the community through social action and community events. Though these interactions we are able to strengthen our own Jewish identities by learning from our commonalities and by taking pride in what makes us unique.

I am so proud to be part of a synagogue that sets such a great example for our young Jews as leaders in the community, and as a place that believes in the strength of its individuals, and the power that we create when we come together. I am excited to see where our strength will take us in the future.

B'shalom,
Jonathan Emanuel
Youth Director

NSY If I was to describe the last few weeks in NSY in one word it would sound something like this: Ummm.... Amazing! Okay so that's two words but technicalities are not the least bit important right now. What's truly important is the fact that NSY is quickly becoming the hottest ticket in town. Nowhere else in Portland can you find late-night "Krispy Kreme" filled Chanukah parties, which happens to be one of the events we recently held (and had a blast at!) at Neveh. But that's not even the best part. We have so many events lined up right now we've almost lost count. We've got Blazer games, cook-offs, Purim dances, and rock climbing! So much fun we can't even contain ourselves! I'm shaking with excitement just typing this right now! If you're a Jewish teen in Portland we want you to join us at these events. And if you're a Jewish adult in Portland there are other things you could be doing (did someone say BINGO NIGHT!?) Parents who are reading this please get your child involved in NSY. We're having such a great time at these events, the only thing that's missing is you! If you have any questions at all, feel free to contact ME, Shawn Rosenthal, at shawnmeister@comcast.net. We are also always making flyers and setting them out at Neveh so please take a few and give them to your friends. Thank you so much for your time. Again, please don't hesitate to email me!

~Shawn Rosenthal

Kadima We had a rockin' good time with Kadima this month as we played in a Guitar Hero competition with Jews from all over the city. Competing against the high school students from Neveh Shalom and Temple Beth Israel we rocked our socks off and had a great time. We have so many incredible programs planned in the next few months including a trip to the Portland Art Museum and a Kadima only overnight. Please stay tuned for further information! If you have any questions or would like more information about Kadima (open to all 6th-8th graders) please contact Jonathan Emanuel at jmanuel@nevehshalom.org.

Religious School

The sixth grade class has the unique opportunity to work with Corinne Speigel from Jewish Family and Child Service on Sunday, January 3rd in a program about Disabilities.

Corinne brings her many years of experience to the class as the kids and their parents learn, firsthand, what it is like to have certain disabilities like dyslexia or impaired vision. Awareness that people with disabilities prefer to be seen for their individuality, not their disability, is an essential part of this presentation. An example of this is instead of using the term "the disabled", it is better to say "people with disabilities". The stress is on people's humanity, not their disability. One can be specific when referring to a person's disability. For example, use "a person with cerebral palsy" or "a person who uses a wheelchair" versus "physically challenged" or "handicapped". In addition, the terms "handicapped", "physically challenged" and "differently abled" are discouraged; they are no longer used or accepted by the disability community. "Handicapped" derives from "cap-in-hand," a beggar's stance. People with disabilities do not wish to be compared to beggars. Again, many thanks to Corinne for her compassionate and highly engaging lessons for our youth and their families.

Foundation School

Brrr... it is wintry outside in January and Foundation School children will be experiencing this beautiful season of whirling snowflakes, smiling snowmen and warm cuddly scarves and mittens in their classrooms together. Just as the dark days of winter get long the Jewish Holidays of Shabbat Shira (the birthday of birds) and Tu B'Shvat (the birthday of trees) come to lift our spirits. We have two special guests coming to enrich our study of trees this month – Sandy Reid from the "Tree Talk" program and JoAnne Raiton, Bonsai Tree expert and former Foundation School Morah. On January 29th we will gather with families for an All-School Shabbat when our 3 year olds will perform songs about birds and trees. February will find us dressed as Kings, Queens and grumpy old Haman in preparation for the fun holiday of Purim! Classes will bake delicious hamantaschen cookies and we'll shake our groggers noisily together whenever we hear Haman's name. The Foundation School Purim Parade takes place on Friday February 26th and is always a favorite event for families to attend.

Shalom,
Morah Jan Skolnik & Morah Kathy Wolfson

Thursdays, 7:00pm

Jan 14, 21, and 28, Room 111

Join a book discussion on the current work of the best-selling author of, "I Never Promised You A Rose Garden," Joanne Greenberg. Greenberg will be reading from her most recent novel, "Miri, Who Charms" on February 25, at 6:30pm in the Reed College Psych Auditorium. Juxtaposing girls growing up in Denver's Orthodox enclave, friendship, questions of love, and spelunking, Greenberg's most recent work, like her earlier fiction, features contemporary characters, like Jews who might live down the street from us, lovingly and sharply observed in the middle of ethical self-discovery. Leading up to this talk, Prof. Gail Sherman of the English Department at Reed will lead discussions of Greenberg's work on three successive Thursday evenings in January at Neveh Shalom.

- January 14: Love, Marriage, and Desire in "A Season Of Delight."
- January 21: Fathers, Sons, and Moral Adulthood in "Appearances."
- January 28: Charm and a Nice Jewish Girl in "Miri, Who Charms."

Books will be available through the Neveh Shalom library, as well as by ordering through the gift shop, or Annie Bloom's bookstore.

We have gloves if you don't. Dress for the weather. Questions? Call Jordan Epstein 503-245-6580 or email yaakovm@comcast.net.

WHEN A DEATH OCCURS

Call the synagogue office 503.246.8831 so that we may inform Rabbi Isaak and/or Rabbi Greenstein and be of assistance. During business hours, ask for Michelle Caplan, ext 114.

After business hours, on weekends & holidays, contact Fred Rothstein 503.475.2934, Rabbi Isaak 503.228.8819 or the funeral home of your choice for assistance. Most Jewish funerals in Portland are arranged by Holman Funeral Service, 503.232.5131.

If you wish Tahara for your loved one—respectful preparation for burial according to ancient Jewish tradition—you may request it from Holman's Funeral Home or the funeral home of your choice. The funeral home will then notify The Chevra.

CLERGY VISITS

To assure that clergy make visits to congregants in the hospital, extended care facilities and hospices, please contact the office at Congregation Neveh Shalom: 503.246.8831. In an effort to comply with the new patient privacy laws, health-care facilities may not release the names of their patients; so it is imperative that you provide the name of the member, the facility name, patient's room number, length of anticipated stay, your relationship to the patient and a number where you can be reached if further information is needed.

Tzedakah is a central mitzvah of Judaism. Use it often and in good health! Tzedakah honors the giver and the recipient.

You can make a Tzedakah contribution to honor, remember or thank someone who is important to you. It is also the custom in many communities to give Tzedakah in appreciation of an honor or aliyah during any service.

Please Be Sure To Include The Names And Addresses Of Both The Donor And The Recipient, As Well As The Name Of The Fund.

We gratefully acknowledge donations to the mentioned Synagogue Funds.
